

Psychology 12

Final Lab Assessment

Assessment

	Developing			Accomplished			Exemplary
Format -layout and presentation -spelling and grammar	Several grammar and spelling errors, may impede meaning Some difficulty navigating Mistakes in order Mostly tidy			Some grammar and spelling errors, do not impede meaning Mostly easy to navigate Some mistakes in order Tidy			None to few grammar and spelling errors Easy to navigate, thoroughly thought out, Proper order Layout flows Professional
Experimental Design -Scientific method -Control -Variables -Analysis -Conclusion -Sources of error	Method is sparse and not replicable Control and variables vague Sources of error not linked well to results Analysis is weak due to lack of evidence Conclusion is weak, no critical though			Some details for method left out Control and variables somewhat vague Sources of error not quite linked to results Analysis somewhat weak due to sparse evidence Conclusion somewhat sparse or brief			All steps relate to experiment Control and variables are clearly stated, well explained Sources of error are well thought out and linked to results Analysis is presented with evidence, hypothesis yes no Conclusion connects the entire lab together, link to the real world
	55	61	67	71	76	81	86	91	100